

Pastor – Pascoag Community Baptist Church

We are a well-established independent Baptist congregation in rural northwest Rhode Island, adjacent to Massachusetts and Connecticut.

The church facilities include a sanctuary, fellowship hall, Christian school and parsonage.

Church beliefs include the inerrancy of scripture, holy lifestyle of the believer and active participation in church fellowship.

The church has a congregational form of government administered by a Board of Deacons, elected at the annual church business meeting.

Pastoral duties include but are not limited to the following;

- Oversight of spiritual duties of the church body as listed in scripture,
- Provide visionary leadership to facilitate church growth,
- Preaching/teaching at Sunday services,
- Administering the church ordinances of communion and baptism,
- Visitation to regular church members as necessary,
- Counsel and discipline of church members,
- General oversight of all church activities, including the Christian school (K-8).

Benefits include:

- Monthly salary,
- Exclusive use of parsonage,
- Other included expenses and benefits to be listed at initial interview.

Requirements:

Belief in a born-again experience (John 3:3-8), inerrancy of scripture and the requirements of an elder (1 Timothy 3:1-7).

Agreement with the church's Statement of Faith, Church Covenant and Constitutional By-Laws. (Note – the by-laws describe the form of church government)

An earned degree in biblical studies, theology or Christian ministry from a recognized accredited school,

Ordination with experience in ministry,

Willingness to relocate.

These requirements should be considered general and not inclusive. Further requirements for successful preliminary applicants will be provided.
