

Job Posting

The Underground New England (UGNE): Executive Director

The UGNE is seeking a full-time executive director to lead our faith-based nonprofit initiative dedicated to ending sex trafficking and sexual exploitation throughout Connecticut and New England.

The ideal candidate will have a proven ability for leadership, financial development, program management, and excellent interpersonal communication.

This position is an excellent opportunity to take leadership of a growing and well-respected organization in the anti-trafficking field. The candidate will have the opportunity to build upon our foundational programming of awareness and prevention and grow our survivor services of mentorship and housing.

Job Responsibilities

- Directs, supervises, motivates, and evaluates staff and volunteers.
- Communicates and develops relationships with individual and corporate donors, Church partners, and other nonprofits.
- Oversees and monitors the annual fiscal budget and participates in the grant writing process.
- Plans, implements and evaluates annual goals and objectives.
- Draws on the gifts and talents of the faith community, bridging them to the anti-trafficking movement.

Qualifications

We're seeking candidates who excel in relationship building, are self-motivated, and have strong management and leadership skills to achieve our operating and financial goals. You should have:

- A track record of developing and maintaining strong working relationships with and among a diverse group of staff and stakeholders.
- Experience managing multiple projects and the ability to oversee staff and volunteers.
- A degree in nonprofit management, or business administration preferred.
- Five or more years of experience required in a social service agency.
- Knowledge of Human Trafficking and the anti-trafficking movement.

Special Knowledge and/or Abilities

- Ability to lead, inspire, challenge and symbolize a realistic sense of hope
- Belief in the dignity of all human lives regardless of color, faith, gender or sexuality.
- Commitment to Christ, His church and the message of transformative love He lived.
- Experience in the anti-trafficking movement and trauma care is a plus, but not required

Compensation depends on experience.
