

Monadnock Covenant Church Associate/Staff Pastor of Next Gen Job Description

Monadnock Covenant Church in Keene, NH is seeking a full-time associate/staff pastor to join our ministry team! MCC was planted more than 25 years ago in southwestern New Hampshire. We are a community of disciples who seek to see, value, and care for all, so that the Kingdom of God is manifested in our lives and community. We are a multigenerational community seeking to intentionally invest in the lives of our youth and children. As a community, we love our neighbors, share in fellowship, adventure, and life. We are looking to hire the right person to join our staff team. If you are interested, so are we!

Position Description

The associate/staff pastor at Monadnock Covenant Church will have responsibility for the oversight and implementation of next gen ministry. These responsibilities may include, but are not limited to: planning and convening weekly gatherings, leading devotionals/lessons, teaching or co-teaching confirmation class, and volunteer training. An ideal candidate will be active in the lives of students and will have a heart for the broader Keene community. Other responsibilities include general pastoral duties: occasional preaching, leading/advising relevant ministry teams, public acts of worship, and other duties as assigned. We will work with the correct candidate to incorporate their gifts and call into their ministry.
